

Seventh Grade Salutations

News of the Week and Upcoming Events

Blessings Seventh Grade Families! Another week of school has gone by again. This week there were volleyball and soccer games played, Back to School Night to prepare for and lots and lots of learning.

Tonight is our Back to School Open House! I hope you can make it tonight as you will have the opportunity to be "Wowed" by your child as they give you a tour of their learning the past couple of weeks. Prior to the tour, at 6pm, there will be an informational meeting in the 7th grade room regarding this year's research project. The all school festivities will begin at 6:30pm in the classrooms with the whole school wrapping up the evening together in the gym. Hope to see you tonight!

Part of this last week's learning was gathering resources for the research paper. We went to the FHLS and Hillsboro Libraries. A few might need to find more books this weekend to meet their 5 source minimum. Next week is when we begin discovering who these people were and what they did to benefit the world.

Monday is school picture day. If you haven't returned your picture form, return it in the Family Envelope Monday.

Have a wonderful weekend!
God bless,
Renee Reitmeier

LEADER IN ME NOTE

This last month, the school worked on improving our greeting skills. We talked about how much is said when you take the time to look a person in the eye, offer to shake their hand and say hello. Ask your child this weekend to share with you proper greeting skills if you haven't seen them naturally in action yet!
