

Seventh Grade Salutations

News of the Week and Upcoming Events

Blessings Seventh Grade Families! The news of this week is very similar to last weeks. I broke down the big events of today and next week for you to reference if you need reminders of what is going on.

The Christmas Program

We have been practicing for the program all week and look forward to sharing Christ's message with you tonight! The seventh grade students need to be in the classroom by 6:45pm to prepare for the 7:00pm performance. Everyone needs to come dressed in nice clothing this evening: slacks and collared shirts for the boys and dresses or skirts/slacks and nice shirts for the girls except for those who are wearing costumes.

Also, to wrap up our Christmas Food Drive, we are asking families who can to bring canned food tonight. Look forward to seeing you there!

Class Christmas Party

It will be next Friday, December 18. One of the activities that day will be exchanging Secret Santa Gifts. Names have already been picked and lists already shared.

This year there is a $10 limit. The gifts can be brought to school as soon as they are ready, but most definitely need to be here next Friday. Our room parent is also preparing a "Breakfast with Santa" for us that day as well.

Now this is something new, the Middle School Lock-In! The Student Council is planning a Lock-in for the 6,7,8 grades in

WRITING
We are in the middle of reading
A CHRISTMAS CAROL.
Next week, we will finish the story. Worksheets with questions to follow up the reading will continue to be assigned. There will be one worksheet each day and will most likely need to be finished at home.
