

Seventh Grade Salutations

News of the Week and Upcoming Events

Blessings Seventh Grade Families!

Today marks the end of the First Quarter of the School Year. Congratulations! The quarters come and go so quickly. I look forward to meeting with each of you to discuss the accomplishments of your child during parent teacher conferences next week.

I also look forward to celebrating the beginning of a new quarter with the class on our field trip to Starbucks on Monday. We will meet at school and drive to Starbucks at 8:20am and stay until 9:40am. Thank you so much to those who have volunteered to drive. The class has been busy finishing their outline for their research paper this week. It was due today. On Monday, everyone begins typing the rough draft at school. They will have one and a half weeks to type up the first draft of their paper. They also continued working on the Five Themes of Geography Project. Everyone is describing their city using the five themes. In two weeks they will be presenting their description to the class in the form of a pamphlet.

I hope and pray your weekend is a restful and enjoyable one. God bless,
Renee Reitmeier
