This Week's News

Christmas Program

This year for our school Christmas program, we are a great program where each class sets up a scene of a living Christmas card. The 8th grade's scene is one of Christmas carolers reciting an adapted Christian version of the poem, "The Night Before Christmas." What each student needs is a classic Christmas caroler outfit for the scene (coat, scarf, maybe a top hat, etc.) or modern winter clothes for their costume. Our Christmas program is on Friday, December 11 so the outfit should be ready by Monday, December 7. If you have any questions, or any trouble finding something, let me know.

Auction Project

Now that the research paper is wrapping up, it is time to start thinking about the Auction Project Autobiography paper. Over Thanksgiving break would be a perfect time to start talking with friends and family about stories and ideas of what has made each 8th grader who they are today. They should still have a questionnaire to help them get started on this. We will be talking about it more as a class next week.

Questions?

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns. I'm always happy to hear feedback.

Harvest Festival

A reminder that the Harvest Festival is tonight!!! If you signed up to help out with the Bounce House, be sure to be there at the time you were assigned. This should be a fun event for all involved.
