

Forest Hills Friday News

Forest Hills Lutheran School • March 12, 2010

Mr. Corey Brandenburger of Murray, Utah, has been called to serve as the next principal of Forest Hills Lutheran School. He presently serves Christ Lutheran School in a similar capacity. Corey is a graduate of Concordia, St. Paul, Minnesota and holds a M.A. in Curriculum and Instruction. His experience includes serving as a Lutheran Elementary school teacher and as a principal at Lutheran Schools for 6 years.

If he feels God is leading him to serve here, he will accept the call. Please keep Mr. Brandenburger, his school Christ Lutheran in Murry and our school in your prayers as the next steps in the call process unfold. God has promised His Spirit as our counselor and guide.

I wanted to write a few words to thank you parents for encouraging and permitting your children to participate in the 2010 National Lutheran Schools Week talent show. The experience is priceless for performer and audience. Tuesday's article in the How We Live section of THE OREGONIAN, "Making music is what fires the brain," speaks of the importance of music in young children's lives ~ and performances beats all!

Kudos to you all,
Jean

Next Week in Chapel Christ Be My Leader

We welcome Mr. Clint Souigny, Minister of Congregational Life at Trinity Lutheran Church in Hillsboro as our chapel leader on Wednesday, March 17. Mr. Souigny will talk with us about "Christ be my Leader. . . as I struggle with Doubt and Uncertainty." Our scripture lesson is from Judges 6:12-23, 36-40, 7:14-21; and text from Psalm 86:15.

Forest Hills Lutheran School is in partnership with Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Aloha in an incredible event this Spring for Feed My Starving Children. Continue to fill your plastic M & Ms tube. Every time you fill that plastic tube with quarters, you'll have $14! That $14 will feed about 80 children.

As you fill your tubes, they can be emptied in the collection container in the office.

Parents and students 3rd grade and older can sign up to be part of their "Mobile Packing Event" being held at Bethlehem Lutheran Church on May 21 & 22. Just go to www.blcfamily.org and on their Homepage you'll see Be a part of it! Click here to register. Then follow the prompts.

Spring Ahead 1 Hour!
Saturday, March 13

Forest Hills is excited to announce the proposed school-wide implementation of The Leader in Me program in 2010/2011. The Leader in Me process helps develop the essential life skills and characteristics students need in order to thrive in the 21st century.

These skills include:

- Leadership
- Accountability
- Initiative and Self-direction
- Cross-cultural skills
- Responsibility
- Problem Solving
- Communication
- Creativity
- Teamwork

The Leader and Me program will be instrumental in helping Forest Hills achieve the vision of becoming 'a regional leader in Christian education recognized for excellence in all things- whose students are compassionate citizens and bold examples of a vibrant faith.'

Join us at one of the informational sessions to learn how students, families, teachers, and administrators will benefit from this program and see how you can help.

Stuff Our Ship

TREASURES, TREASURES, TREASURES

Golden coins have been given to students who have brought items in to stuff our ship.

The following families won the treasure drawing and took home the loot - a plate of famous FHLS brownies and a gift card!

Week 1 - Cooper Family (Tristan)

Week 2 - Young Family (Alyssa)

Week 3 - You family?

Week 4 - Your family?

The next drawing will be Wed. March 17th.

TREASURES include all donations. Ask a neighbor, hairdresser, or favorite restaurant to donate an item. Do you have a vacation home, theater or sporting event tickets? The real treasure is keeping our tuition affordable - that is the end result. Go out and find some treasure shipmates!!
